

- All telephone numbers start:
- Accommodation and Food
- 13 - New Inn Hotel
 - 14 - Flying Horsehoe Hotel
 - 15 - Arbutus Guest House
 - 16 - Brook House Cafe and B&B
 - 17 - Dalesbridge Centre
- Services
- 18 - Mrs J Close Holiday Caravans
 - 19 - Cafe Anne
 - 20 - Croft Cafe
 - 21 - Clapham Village Store & PO
 - 22 - Ingleborough Cave
- 015242
- 23 - Homebarn Outdoor Gear Shop
 - 24 - Growing with Grace - Organic Farm Shop
 - 25 - Glencroft Suppliers of Sheepskin and Country Wear
 - 26 - Event Interiors
 - 27 - Meldingscale Organics
- 51162
 - 51723
 - 51747
 - 51852
 - 51345

If you find there is too much to do and see in a day there is accommodation to suit all tastes and pockets.

With such a variety of outdoor activities, shops and places of interest you will need to find refreshment at one of the local inns or cafes.

CLAPHAM VILLAGE

1 - Clapham Station
 2 - Clapham School
 3 - Market Cross
 4 - Reading Room
 5 - Ingleborough Hall
 6 - Millennium Stone
 7 - St James' Church
 8 - Village Hall
 9 - Hall Garth
 10 - Bethel Chapel
 11 - Broken Bridge
 12 - Making Bridge

Welcome to Clapham

At the centre of the village runs Clapham Beck, which starts life high on the slopes adjoining Ingleborough. It plunges to subterranean depths, emerging to run down into the lake, over a waterfall and through the village, passing beneath four bridges.

There are walks to suit all abilities. Leave the large car park for a stroll in the village or climb Ingleborough, one of the Three Peaks, which can be approached from the village by at least three recognised routes.

Follow the Estate Nature Trail and visit Ingleborough Cave. Afterwards carry on through Trow Gill to Gaping Gill where Fell Beck falls 104 metres into a chamber said to be large enough to hold York Minster. On the two main Bank Holidays, local caving clubs, who are very active throughout the year, offer to winch members of the public down, and up!

Based in the village is the Cave Rescue Organisation which serves people and animals above and below ground across a wide area of the Dales.

Clapham is the home of the Farrer family whose Ingleborough estate was established in the 18th Century. The family is responsible amongst many things for the beauty and continued existence of the woods, fields, walls and moors which cradle the village and its farms. Reginald Farrer, a notable botanist, lived here.

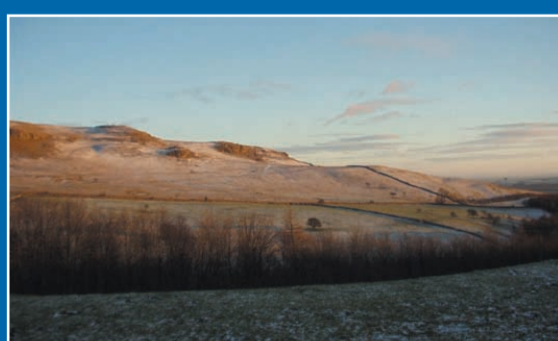

Below the waterfall at the head of the village stands the Church of St. James, which was founded in Norman times. The 12th Century tower remains, the rest of the church dates from the 19th Century.

Clapham is a focal point for walks to Austwick, Selside, Horton-in-Ribblesdale, Norber and its sea of boulders, the quiet of Crummackdale. The rest of the Dales and the Lake District are a short drive away. Visit this unspoiled village which provides a glimpse of the life and environment of the Yorkshire Dales.

Travel

- By Road
 A65 from Leeds • A65 from Kendal / M6 J36
 Preston / M6 J31 / A59 / A682 / A65
 Lancaster / M6 J34 / A683 / B6480
- By Rail
 From Leeds or Lancaster to Clapham North Yorkshire
- By Bus 581
 From Horton in Ribblesdale, Settle and Ingleton
- Airports
 Leeds/Bradford • Manchester • Liverpool • Blackpool
- Traveline 0870 608 2 608

Clapham Development Association thanks:
 Geoff Farnell, Neil Fox, David Kingsley, Stuart Massey, Angus Stewart for photos. Fiona Bowley and Yorkshire Dales Millennium Trust for use of Millennium Stone artwork. James Innerdale for drawing the maps.

Clapham

Doorway to the Dales

Tradition and Peace

www.claphamyorkshire.co.uk